WHAT IS

RETURNING MOTHER'S DAY ?

Returning Mothers Day is a global initiative dedicated to recognizing, celebrating, and supporting women who have taken a break from their careers for motherhood and are now reentering the workforce. This day aims to create awareness around the challenges returning mothers face and the incredible value they bring to workplaces.

WHY IS IT IMPORTANT ?

The transition back to work can be overwhelming for many mothers, often filled with hurdles such as regaining career momentum, balancing family responsibilities, and re-establishing their professional identity. By acknowledging this journey, Returning Mothers Day provides a platform to advocate for more inclusive work environments, flexible policies, and an increased support for women resuming their careers after a break.

OUR MISSION

The journey of returning mothers is one of resilience, strength, and ambition.

International Returning Mother's Day on September 10, 2026 marks the annual celebration, creating awareness and recognition worldwide.

The Returning Mother's Conference on September 18 and September 19, 2026 builds on this momentum by:

Showcasing success stories of mothers reentering the workforce.

Engaging communities, institutions, and organizations to commit to creating lasting supportive environments.

Advocating inclusive policies and workplaces that value returning mothers.

Promoting continuous skill development, mentorship, and stronger networks for sustained growth.

Driving cultural change to ensure returning mothers are empowered not just today, but in the future.
