WHAT IS RETURNING MOTHER'S DAY ?

Returning Mothers Day is a global initiative dedicated to recognizing, celebrating, and supporting women who have taken a career break for motherhood and are now returning to the workforce.

Observed on September 10, the initiative was launched in 2024 through WePOWER, a World Bank-supported network, to highlight the valuable contributions of returning mothers and promote greater career inclusivity.

WHY IS IT IMPORTANT ?

Returning to work after a career break can be challenging. Mothers often navigate the demands of rebuilding their careers while balancing family responsibilities and re-establishing their professional identity.

Returning Mothers Day creates a platform to raise awareness, celebrate their achievements, and encourage inclusive workplaces, flexible policies, career opportunities, and stronger support systems for women returning to work.

Together, let us recognize every journey and build a more inclusive future for returning mothers.

OUR MISSION

The journey of returning mothers is one of resilience, strength, and ambition.

International Returning Mother's Day on September 10, 2026 marks the annual celebration, creating awareness and recognition worldwide.

The Returning Mother's Conference on November 13 and 14, 2026 builds on this momentum by:

Showcasing success stories of mothers reentering the workforce.

Engaging communities, institutions, and organizations to commit to creating lasting supportive environments.

Advocating inclusive policies and workplaces that value returning mothers.

Promoting continuous skill development, mentorship, and stronger networks for sustained growth.

Driving cultural change to ensure returning mothers are empowered not just today, but in the future.
